

INCLUSIVE PLAY

Practical Strategies for Working with Children Aged 3 to 8

Theresa Casey Freelance Education Consultant, Edinburgh

Do all the young children in your setting have an opportunity to engage in meaningful play?

By making practical suggestions and using tried-and-tested approaches, this book shows you how to help all the children in your care to feel included and involved in play opportunities.

Inclusive play can be encouraged in a number of ways and this book looks at:

- how to improve and develop outdoor play environments
- ways to support play between children of diverse abilities
- examples of play activities
- sample play audits and play observation forms
- how play can be linked to the curriculum
- involving children in improving play opportunities and play environments
- planning
- writing a play policy for your setting
- useful resources.

It is full of practical advice to help you improve and develop opportunities for inclusive play in your setting.

Teachers, playworkers, nursery nurses and all other early years professionals should find it an empowering and uplifting guide.
